

I am opposed to changes in broadcast ownership rules. I fear that large corporations will drive out small broadcasters of either radio or television. This is a multicultural nation and should be represented in the broadcast media with a very wide base of choices and ownership